

KLOVE is the only radio station my husband and I know we can trust in our home. The programming and lack of commercials makes it safe for our family. We receive local news and updates on our KLove station. If KLove were to be displaced by another station we would be bitterly disappointed and lost. KLove provides encouraging words and music with no innappropriate or negative messages. Please do not replace our Klove.